June 28, 2016

I chose to live here long term because of the diverse culture and esthetic of this town.

I was previously a resident manager for Columbia Care Services overseeing a transitional apartment community for the mentally ill. Working in unison with case managers and the county office to ensure guidelines and regulations were met.

Currently, in my job capacity at the housing authority of Jackson County. I ensure compliance to a federal and state funded apartment community in Ashland.

I believe I bring a possible fresh set of eyes to a committee. I have lived in the south, Midwest and of course the west coast. Diverse towns such as Indianapolis, Chicago and Los Angeles.

With that being said no matter where you live all basic necessities need to be made available and consistent and this is something I want to be a part of.

I hope you will consider me.

Sincerely,

Michelle Linley
