From: Tina Gray Human Resource Director
grayt@ashland.or.us

Summary:

The City conducted an open and competitive selection process for Fire Chief. Four finalists were invited to participate in an intensive two-day interview and selection process in Ashland this past summer. One finalist dropped out at the last minute, so three finalists were interviewed. Mike D'Orazi was selected due to his impressive background in the fire service. Mike promoted up through the ranks with the City of Alameda, California Fire Department serving as their Fire Chief his last 3 ½ years with the Department. Mike is excited to bring his unique skill-set to Ashland Fire & Rescue and he promises to continue the culture of collaboration, community partnership, and innovation that John Karns established during his tenure as Chief.

Staff is recommending Council confirm his appointment as Ashland's next Fire Chief.

N/A.

Background and Additional Information:

In December 2016, John Karns was asked to step in as the Interim City Administrator leaving his position as Fire Chief. The position was filled internally on an interim basis by David Shepherd. Once John's assignment as Interim City Administrator was extended, the City Council decided to proceed with filling the Fire Chief vacancy with a regular hire.

The City's Human Resource Department advertised the position and handled the recruitment without the assistance of an outside recruitment firm. Fortunately, the response to the Job Announcement was positive, and 3 finalists competed in an intensive selection process for Fire Chief in late August. A job offer was extended to Mike D'Orazi and he is set to begin work as Ashland's new Fire Chief December 4, 2017, following confirmation of his appointment by the City Council. Mike and his wife are excited to make Ashland their new home. David Shepherd has done an excellent job of keeping Ashland Fire & Rescue running smoothly and we anticipate an equally smooth transition as Mike steps in as the new Fire Chief.
