

Ashland Senior Services Division Presents:

ASHLAND CONNECTOR WORKSHOP

Wednesday, February 5, 1-3pm
Ashland Senior Center, 1699 Homes Avenue

FREE, but please REGISTER at the Senior Center office,
or by calling 541-488-5342, or by emailing seniorinfo@ashland.or.us.

The Ashland Connector is a convenient, affordable new ride service that started in Ashland in December. Come learn from RVT staff about how to use this “on demand” van service that can pick you up at home within the city limits and drop you off at the Senior Center and other key Ashland destinations.

You can also learn more at ashlandconnector.org or by calling RVT at 541.779.2877.

Ashland Senior Services Division Presents:

Avoiding Frauds, Scams & Cons

Wednesday, March 11, 1-3pm
Ashland Senior Center, 1699 Homes Avenue

FREE, but please REGISTER at the Senior Center office, or by calling 541-488-5342 or emailing seniorinfo@ashland.or.us.

Ron Kohl, retired detective and Crime Prevention Specialist, will teach how you can identify and protect yourself from frauds, scams and cons.

Ashland Senior Services Division Presents:

Life History Story Time

Wednesday, February 26, 1-3pm
Ashland Senior Center, 1699 Homes Avenue

FREE, but please REGISTER at the Senior Center office,
or by calling 541-488-5342, or by emailing seniorinfo@ashland.or.us.

Bill Warner of KnectToday will present on the value of recording your family's life histories and offer an opportunity for participants to experience the fun of sharing their stories.

Ashland Parks and Recreation – Senior Services Division

Winter-Spring Events 2020

All events will be held at the Ashland Senior Center at 1699 Homes Avenue
ALL FREE, but please register when required

For more information, and to register, call 541.488.5342
or email seniorinfo@ashland.or.us

Life History Story Time

Wednesday, February 26, 1-3pm

FREE, but REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Bill Warner of KnectToday will present on the value of recording your family's life histories and offer an opportunity for participants to experience the fun of sharing their stories. Everyone has a story to tell!

Avoiding Frauds, Scams and Cons

Wednesday, March 11, 1-3pm

FREE, but REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Ron Kohl, retired detective and Crime Prevention Specialist, will give helpful tips on how you can identify and protect yourself from frauds, scams and cons.

Barbershop Quartet Performance

Wednesday, March 25, 1-2 pm

FREE, no registration required

Join us for a fun and nostalgic barbershop quartet performance by the Barbershop Harmony Society of the Rogue Valley Harmonizers!

Author Talk:

Sue De Marinis, "The Station Master's Wife: A Scandalous Life Exposed"

Wednesday, April 8, 1-3 pm

FREE, but REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Local author Sue DeMarinis will read from her second novel, The Station Master's Wife, share slides with vintage photos and sign books. Based on the life of Alice, the station master's wife when the transcontinental railroad arrived in Ashland in 1887, this story is set among true historical events spanning half a century.