

Sensory Exploration

Good writing incorporates all five senses, but also includes feelings and emotions. Use this sheet to record impressions of all your senses—sight, sound, touch, taste and smell. Finally, use your “sixth sense” to describe how your observations make you feel .

Sight	Sound
Touch	Taste
Smell	Feel

Letter to a Friend

There are many different ways to define the place you call home. Imagine that you are writing a letter to a pen pal in a faraway place who has never visited this place. How will you describe what makes this place special? What adjectives come to mind?

Setting the Scene:

You might want to describe the landscape, plants, animals, seasons, smells or sounds.
