

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, February 4, 2021, is the fourth annual Transit Equity Day; and

Whereas, Transit Equity Day is celebrated on February 4 because it marks the 108th birthday of Rosa Parks; and

Whereas, Rosa Parks helped to lead a movement to oppose injustice in the Montgomery bus system; and

Whereas, work continues today to ensure that public transportation is accessible and affordable to all; and

Whereas, Transit Equity Day calls attention to disparities in transit access and air quality; and

Whereas, Transit Equity Day in Ashland is hosted by the Ashland Climate Action Project of Southern Oregon Climate Action Now.

Now, therefore, I, Julie Akins, Mayor of Ashland, Oregon do hereby recognize February 4, 2021, as in the City of Ashland.

Transit Equity Day
