

Welcome to the Ashland Watershed

USFS 2060 to Wonder trail

Provides expansive views of Ashland watershed.

- From Granite Street, take right fork onto USFS 2060 and go around the yellow gate.
- Continue 1.5 miles to Wonder trail.
- The trail ends at the intersection with Fell on Knee trail, at a granite boulder outcropping with large pines and ponderosas with a stunning view of Mt. Ashland and the heart of the Ashland watershed. Wildflowers abound mid-May through June. Return the way you came.

Begin at USFS 2060 to Wonder Out & back, 6.2 miles total ~1500' gain/loss

Bandersnatch - Gryphon Lollipop

A challenging climb through diverse forests.

- From Glenview Dr., take Waterline trail and follow signs to Bander Snatch.
- Continue 1 mile on Bander Snatch trail to Red Queen trail.
- Follow the Red Queen trail for .33 mile and turn left onto Gryphon trail.
- Continue .33 mile to the next intersection with Bander Snatch trail and turn right.
- Continue on Bander Snatch, cross the Alice in Wonderland trail, and reach the intersection of Jub Jub after .33 mile. Turn left onto Jub Jub trail.
- Hike 500 feet to join the Red Queen trail again for 300 feet.
- Turn right onto Bander Snatch and return the way you came — down Bander Snatch, turning right onto Waterline and left onto Glenview Drive.

Begin at Glenview to Waterline Lollipop, 3.6 miles total ~1300' gain/loss

Lizard - Jabberwocky Loop

Includes awesome bike-only flow trail riding.

- From Glenview Drive, turn right on Ashland Loop Road.
- Continue 3 miles on Ashland Loop Road/USFS 2060, past the White Rabbit Trailhead and Caterpillar Crossing.
- At the Lamb Mine Saddle, turn hard right (north) onto Caterpillar trail (multi-use and uphill bike traffic).
- After a .25-mile gentle climb, turn right onto the Lizard trail (bike only). The first right-hand turn on Lizard trail may be challenging!
- Enjoy the swoopy downhill curves of Lizard for .25 mile before crossing Caterpillar trail onto Jabberwocky trail (bike only).
- Follow Jabberwocky trail 2 miles to Waterline trail. Turn right. Slow down! This is a shared use trail, frequented by pedestrians.
- Continue to Glenview Drive.

Begin at Glenview to Ashland Loop Rd Loop, 7 miles total ~1900' gain/loss