Stay Connected with Your Community, and with Parks & Rec

Throughout the current calendar year, our country, our state and our community have been through a great deal. The year 2020 has been challenging; however, the community of Ashland has reacted and rebounded, as much as possible, to provide care and support for each other. You have probably noticed many changes to Ashland Parks and Recreation Commission (APRC) since March, such as buildings being closed; classes, events and programs being canceled and many outdoor amenities being shuttered.

Since March, when many APRC services and programs were halted, our staff has worked hard to find ways to continue to connect with the public. Some programs would be down for a long period of time, such as the Daniel Meyer Memorial Pool and The Grove Recreation Center. To address the gap in recreation program offerings due to closures, our recreation staff worked to identify new ways to connect with you. We developed the "Find Your Space" initiative, which is a system that focuses on the safety of community members, staff and our instructors, and offers alternative options for enjoyment as we navigate public health guidelines.

The system offers three spaces: PHYSICAL Space - Parks, Trails and Open Space; SAFE Space - Resources available to community members to stay safe and healthy; and, FUN Space - Explore ways to stay active and engaged with communities including providing feedback to APRC - This space includes our collection/resources of digital materials!

Some areas of APRC, like the physical open spaces, parks and trails, have seen record numbers of users over the summer season. People are taking advantage of the outdoors and spending time using the thousands of acres of open space, parks and trails available to them through APRC, the City of Ashland and the Forest Service. Our staff has enjoyed the opportunity to serve the public by maintaining and providing a "space" for our community to use safely during a very uncertain time.

Recently, the Community was again faced with challenges related to the national unification to fight racism and injustice. APRC's statement to the community still stands as we affirm our commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion. We seek to make parks and programs accessible and safe for all, regardless of race or gender, age or abilities, sexual orientation, religion or socioeconomics. ALL are welcome here.

In addition, 2020 has been a challenging year both nationally and locally; even before September 8 when the Almeda Fire ravaged the communities of Talent and Phoenix. Our hearts go out to our neighboring communities for their suffering and loss as a result of the recent fires. APRC has been working where we can to provide support and assistance to Talent and Phoenix and we will be here for the long run, to assist our community of neighbors as we rebuild together.

This season's PlayGuide, although limited in offerings, is representative of an agency of employees, volunteers and elected officials who are working very hard to provide something positive to our community of neighbors in an uncertain time. All of your friends at APRC invite you to explore the opportunities available through this PlayGuide and the thousands of acres of parks and open space in and around Ashland to give you the opportunity to "Find Your Space."

PUBLIC HEALTH GUIDELINES for RESPONSIBLE OUTDOOR RECREATION

Prepare before you go:

- Limit your recreation activities, and recreate only with people in your own household
- Check what's open before leaving home—Your favorite recreation area may remain closed, or need to be closed on a temporary basis to prevent crowding and protect public health
- Plan ahead and come prepared as service levels may be different than you are accustomed to
- Visitors may find limited restroom services available—Plan to bring your own soap, water, hand sanitizer and toilet paper
- Bring a facial covering to cover your nose and mouth
- Bring your own food and water bottle
- Visit less crowded areas, visit during off-peak times, and have a back-up plan
- Visit parks and recreation areas close to home, avoid overnight trips to minimize travel outside your immediate area for recreation
- Not feeling well? Don't go—If you have symptoms of a fever, cough, or shortness of breath, stay home

Take care when you get there:

- Be safe and responsible by choosing activities within your comfort zone
- Leave no trace, and pack out what you pack in
- Maintain your own personal hygiene like washing your hands often, or use hand sanitizer
- Avoid crowds—Be prepared for last minute changes to ensure the safety and health of others
- All of the standard ways to protect public health apply in the outdoors too, like maintaining physical distance—Keep at least six (6) feet between you and others enjoying the outdoors... Wear a mask when you can't maintain distance
- Leave at least one parking space between your vehicle and the vehicle next to you why no dogs?

Why aren't dogs allowed in two (2) of our City Parks?

Lithia Park and North Mountain Park do not allow dogs. Protecting wildlife in both parks is a priority. Dogs can have an impact on wildlife, historical elements and the landscape.

What if I keep my dog on a leash?

Wildlife have acute senses and dogs can scare wildlife, even if it is only the scent of a dog.

Where are dogs allowed?

Dogs are allowed ON LEASH in 14 parks in Ashland and ON LEASH within the Ashland Trails System. Dogs are allowed off leash at The Dog Park.

Where can I get more info?

Complete info, including ADA compliant service dog guidelines and who to call if you see a dog that is non-compliant, at ashland.or.us/DogFriendly.

FIND YOUR SPACE with APRC!

We are here for you and WANT to hear from you and help you FIND YOUR SPACE! What type of support do you need from APRC in order to stay healthy, engaged and connected during a public health emergency?

“Find Your Space” is a system that first focuses on the safety of community members, staff and our instructors, and offers alternative options for enjoyment as we navigate public health guidelines.

The system offers three spaces:

- Physical Space - Parks, trails and open space
- Safe Space - Community resources for health, safety and well-being
- Fun Space - Ways to stay active and engaged with other community members

Examples might be:

- The self-guided plant walks in Lithia Park, ashland.or.us/LPtrailGuide
- Providing resources to our citizens, such as our current Senior Services Division COVID-19 resource web page, ashland.or.us/COVID19SeniorResources
- Connecting neighbors through the City of Ashland’s “Adopt a Neighbor Ashland” program, AdoptNeighbor.org
- The resource page for the Almeda Fire victims, ashland.or.us/AshlandResponse
- Online recreation events that keep you connected to your community

We are anxious to get back to providing regular services to our community. In the meantime, one of our goals is to provide resources that help keep you and your neighbors engaged even when our ability to connect in person is challenged.

Remember, we are in this together and we are here for you. For more information please visit ashland.or.us/FindYourSpace, email ParksInfo@ashland.or.us or call 541.488.5340. HOW NOT TO LEAVE A LASTING IMPACT: CARING FOR OUR “MULTIPLE USE” PARKS

A group of elementary students gather for their North Mountain Park field trip. Birds forage for the last of the late-summer black berries, while quail and rabbits hide in the undergrowth. A family with their toddler are playing in Bear Creek, near salmon seeking a place to spawn. A bobcat creeps along the stream corridor, looks right at the human kids and then continues on her way, unaware that she is the lesson of today’s field trip.

Those students are learning, firsthand, that we share parks with many other living things. We teach that humans are visitors in their habitat, and we should be respectful guests. This lesson is not just for kids!

Lessen your impact by:

- Employ “Leave No Trace” ethics | Stay on marked trails
- Use well-established stream access points
- Leave pets at home | Don’t cut or remove vegetation
- Don’t open up new access for humans
- Pack-out your trash | Avoid bare soil, let disturbed areas recover
- Volunteer with us!

For adults, we explain that parks and public lands are “multiple use”, balancing recreational uses alongside habitat preservation. That’s why some areas of our parks are not FOR people and are instead set aside as a refuge for wildlife.

APRC maintains trail systems and clear signage to ensure that we don’t “love our parks to death”. You can care for wildlife by staying on marked trails and using our parks as Land Managers intended.

You may not realize it, but even the less-accessible park areas are carefully managed.

Some visitors see an overgrown area of the park and want to “help” by widening paths, clearing streambanks or making new access points. However, they may not see the bigger picture. Some areas are intentionally inaccessible to prevent illegal camping, the spread of invasive species, damage to native plants and streambank erosion. Plus, when humans leave the areas designated for visitors, our noise and scent will drive animals out of their small remaining refuges.

If you would like to help, we’d love to work WITH you. Why not volunteer? Contact Sulaiman Shelton 541.552.2264 to learn more.

As humans, we are all learning how to share the earth for “multiple uses”. Our public lands are a microcosm, a training ground, where we can practice lessening our impact. Please join us out in our parks, to play, explore, meet some wild animals, find some peace, and learn how to coexist.
