

Adapt Your Home campaign

This campaign focuses on taking climate action at home. Each month will focus on a different topic, ranging from preparedness, responsible consumption, switching off of fossil fuels, and renewable energy. The campaign will run from March to June. To learn how you can take action or to sign up for an event, visit our new climate webpages at www.ashland.or.us/climate

Here is the schedule of events –

March 18th 1-2pm – Wildfires & Climate Change - Preparing for climate change means preparing for wildfire. Learn what it takes to prepare your household for fire season in Ashland.

April 22nd 1-2pm – Love Your Water – Use it Wisely - Learn about where Ashland gets its water from, how you can reduce and improve your water usage, and city water incentives.

April 29th 1-2pm – Rethinking Waste – Paying attention to how products are made, consumed and then disposed of offer opportunities for change. By lowering these impacts, we can reduce emissions and the depletion of our natural resources. Join us as we share ideas to take action in our daily lives.

May 20th 1-2pm – Purchasing an Electric Vehicle - Interested in buying an electric vehicle? Join us as we go over everything you need to know, including navigating federal, state, and city incentives.

May 27th 1-2pm – Home Energy Upgrades - Are you interested in making home energy upgrades? Wondering what a heat pump water heater is? Join us as we go over this and other energy upgrades, as well as city incentives and other energy saving tips.

June 17th 1-2pm – Renewable Energy – TBD

Climate Action Stories

Building a sustainable Ashland requires action at home and in the community. The Climate Action Stories project is focused on sharing empowering stories to inspire and connect with your neighbors. This is open to individuals and businesses that reside in Ashland. Our goal is to have a collection of local stories that highlight positive climate action. To share how you take climate action, fill out this form - <https://form.jotform.com/210066609409151>. We will be sharing these stories on our website and social media
