SUMMARY

Second Reading and adoption of Ordinance #3236 to establish a Human Resources Department.

POLICIES, PLANS & GOALS SUPPORTED

Creating a dedicated department for human resources management enhances transparency by ensuring that essential information and processes are documented and accessible to relevant stakeholders.

Effective management of personnel matters is crucial for mitigating legal risks and liabilities.

Establishing a department dedicated to human resources management creates opportunities for innovation and continuous improvement in administrative processes and service delivery.

BACKGROUND AND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Establishing a department by ordinance provides a clear legal framework for their existence, structure, and operation within the city government. By formalizing the creation of departments through ordinances, the city ensures transparency, accountability, and adherence to legal requirements in governance.

Establishing a human resources department is essential for managing the city's workforce effectively. This department would be responsible for recruitment, training, performance evaluation, employee relations, and compliance with labor laws and policies. Having a dedicated HR department ensures consistency, fairness, and professionalism in managing personnel matters, fostering a positive work environment, and mitigating legal risks related to employment practices.

Overall, establishing departments by ordinance demonstrates the city's commitment to effective governance, strategic planning, and meeting the evolving needs of its residents and stakeholders. It provides a structured framework for departmental functions, responsibilities, and accountability, facilitating the efficient delivery of services and promoting the well-being of the community.

FISCAL IMPACTS

The establishment of the Human Resources Department through this ordinance does not anticipate any significant fiscal impacts. While this department has not been formally formed previously, the functions have been carried out as necessary within the government structure, typically by a director and administrative staff. This ordinance does not seek to alter the staffing levels or the core functions of the existing Human Resources director. Therefore, it is anticipated that there will be no fiscal impact resulting from the enactment of these ordinances.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Apart from inquiries regarding the current roles and responsibilities of personnel handling these functions, there are no specific budgetary or staffing considerations anticipated. Additionally, there are no legal compliance requirements within the framework of establishing this department.

SUGGESTED NEXT STEPS

Council member may move to adopt ordinance #3236 Creating a Human Resources Department for the City of Ashland.
